LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

20-06-2024

Dear Mujahidul Islam,

InsuranceDekho ("the Company") is pleased to provisionally confirm your appointment for the position of Executive Trainee, Band 1, effective date of joining 17-06-2024 at an annual CTC of INR 300000 (more particularly set out in Schedule A hereto).

The terms and conditions of your employment with the Company are as follows. You shall hereinafter for the purposes of this letter of appointment be referred to as "Employee"

1. TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

1.1. Probation Period:

- a) The Employee acknowledges that their employment with the Company is provisional until the successful completion of a 90-day probation period ("Probation Period"). Upon successfully concluding the Probation Period, the Employee will receive confirmation, transitioning to a permanent, full-time position with the Company. Throughout this tenure and thereafter, the Employee is required to be committed to fulfilling their duties in the best interest of the Company.
- b) In the event that the Employee fails to meet professional obligations, given target or benchmarks, or breaches the company code of conduct, or fails to adhere to company policies, rules, and regulations, the Company reserves the right to extend the Probation Period at its discretion or terminate the employment without recourse to the Employee.
- c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Employee also understands that the Company retains the authority to terminate their employment at any time during the probation period, either by providing notice in accordance with the Company's notice period policy or by offering salary in lieu of the notice period. Upon departure, the Employee agrees to ensure the successful completion and handover of all ongoing activities in accordance with the Company's separation process policy.

1.2. Background Check:

- a) The Employee further agrees and acknowledges that the Employee's appointment and continuous employment are subject to satisfactory reference and background checks, including but not limited to the verification of application materials, documentation education and employment history, civil or criminal liabilities, credit, and regulatory background, as well as confirmation of ability to work for the Company without any restrictions (for instance non-compete obligations or other restrictive clauses from previous employers). The Employee unequivocally grants consent to the Company to share all necessary data, including personal information, required for conducting such reference and background checks to the Company's satisfaction.

- b) If the employee is unable to submit a few documents owing to theft, loss or awaiting issuance from relevant authorities at the time of joining, he/she/they undertake to submit them within a maximum period of 1 month of joining or within the period as determined by the company. Such exemptions on the required documents and/or on the waiting period will be solely at the discretion of the company on a case to case basis and the company would reserve the right to either deny employment or terminate the services without notice or compensation if all required documents are not submitted as per requirements.
- c) If any information furnished by the Employee in the application for employment or during the selection process is found at any time during the employment to be incorrect or false, and/or if the Employee has suppressed material information regarding the qualifications and experience, the Company may terminate the services without notice or compensation.
- d) It is Employee's responsibility to notify the Company of any changes in their personal information/ particulars as recorded with the company within 3 working days of such change happening. All notices shall be considered duly and properly delivered to the address on file with the Company.

1.3. Place of Employment and Transfer:

- a) Employee's primary place of employment, until further notification shall be at the Company's offices located at Plot No. 301, Gurugram, Haryana, India. The company may from time to time require the Employee to travel to other locations (whether within or outside India) in connection with the employment and the Employee agrees to do so according to the specific requirements prevailing at the time, to serve the best interests of the Company.
- b) The Company reserves the right to transfer Employee in such other capacity as Company may determine, to any department/section, location, into any group companies and/or affiliates, change in shift timings, roster or any other company or legal entity, as part of its contractual commitment to render any specific services to such other company or legal entity, or as part of any transfer of undertaking of Company or as part of any restructuring or amalgamation or such other plan implemented by Company or by which Company is bound, on such terms and conditions as applicable to such plan. In such a case, the employee will be governed by the terms and conditions of the service applicable at the new placement location.
- c) The Company shall reimburse the cost of relocation to the Employee in accordance with its prevailing policies.

Mujahidul Islam

1.4. Notice Period

Employee's notice period will be dependent on the grade he/she is at during the employment and as per confirmation & exit policy. If during the employment the grade changes, the notice period will change accordingly.

2. SCOPE OF WORK

- a) The Employee shall during his/her/their association with the Company perform such duties, functions, and responsibilities as determined and assigned by the Company. The Employee shall be obliged to render services in accordance with the directives provided by his/her/their supervisor/s in the best interest of the Company.
- b) The Employee explicitly agrees to abstain from participating in any activity that currently does, might, or could reasonably conflict with the best interests of the Company. Additionally, the Employee undertakes not to take any action exceeding the authority delegated to them.
- c) The Employee shall adhere to all policies regarding work hours, holidays, and leave updated from time to time. Notwithstanding the above, the Employee is generally expected to be physically present at their designated workplace during the assigned shift timings, work days as necessitated by business requirements and as per the work arrangements policy.

3. REMUNERATION

3.1 Salary:

- a) Employee's remuneration for the services rendered by them shall initially be as set forth in Schedule A, which may be amended by Company from time to time. The remuneration will accrue on a daily basis and will be payable monthly in arrears.
- b) Employee acknowledges and understands that Company may, due to business reasons, reduce the remuneration at any time. The Company shall however keep the Employee informed about such change in remuneration.
- c) The salary package offered to the Employee is peculiar and personal to the Employee. Any comparison of the same with the salary packages of other employees, based purely on the total experience level in the industry, may be unrealistic, misleading and invidious. The employee should keep information related to his/her/their salary package/remuneration strictly confidential.
- d) The employee will be eligible for his/her/their annual compensation revision as per the Talent review process of the organization.
- e) Variable pay, if applicable, will be paid based on employee's performance, BU performance and the company's performance for the year. The payment is subject to the employee being active (not serving notice) on the company rolls as on the date of disbursement.

Mujahidul Islam

3.2 Taxes:

- a) The payments made and other benefits given to the Employee by the Company for the services rendered to the Company shall be subject to such withholding taxes or taxes deducted at source, as may be required under applicable laws at relevant points in time.
- b) The Employee shall be liable for any income tax and all other applicable taxes arising out of such payments and benefits. Company assumes no responsibility for employees' personal tax affairs and his/her/their tax liability in respect of his/her/their compensation (including the responsibility of filing his/her/their/their income-tax returns) and the same shall at all times be entirely Employee's responsibility.

4. INVENTION ASSIGNMENT RIGHT

- a) Should the Employee possess any inventions, innovations, authored works, or intellectual property ("Prior Inventions") prior to the commencement of their employment, whether developed independently or during prior employment, they are required to list and describe these in a separate document, attached as Schedule B to this Letter of Appointment. Additionally, the Employee will specify ownership and any third-party licenses associated with these Prior Inventions. If Schedule B is left blank, it will be presumed that no Prior Inventions exist.
- b) During employment, the Employee will generally abstain from utilizing Prior Inventions. However, if utilized, the Company is granted rights to these, either wholly or through a fully royalty-free, non-exclusive, perpetual, worldwide license, unless exclusivity is feasible.
- c) Furthermore, the Employee is obliged not to employ any Confidential Information or Intellectual Property obtained in previous employment(s) or any information the Company is not entitled to utilize.
- d) Throughout the duration of the Employee's affiliation with the Company, the Employee recognizes and acknowledges that any inventions, innovations, or intellectual property conceived, developed, or created by the Employee during the course of their employment, whether independently or in collaboration with others, shall be deemed the exclusive property of the Company. The Company shall possess sole and absolute ownership rights, including but not limited to patents, copyrights, trademarks, and any other intellectual property rights, associated with these inventions. This provision extends to inventions created during working hours, using Company resources, or reasonably related to the Company's business activities.

5. NON SOLICITATION

- 5.1 Employee undertakes to Company that, Employee shall not, in any manner directly or indirectly during the period of their employment with Company and for a further period of 24 (twenty four) months from the date they cease to be in the employment of Company (“Non-Solicitation Period”):
- a) call upon, cause to be called upon, solicit or assist in the solicitation of, any client, customer, supplier or contractor of Company or its Affiliates for the purpose of selling, supplying or making provision for any product or service competing with the products and services of Company or its subsidiaries or request, recommend or advise any client, customer, supplier or contractor to cease or curtail doing business with Company or its Affiliates;
 - b) be concerned or associated with any business directly or indirectly manufacturing, operating, selling, distributing, offering or providing products or services in any manner whatsoever which compete with the then current business of the Company.
 - c) induce or attempt to induce any customer/client of Company to cease to be a customer/client of, or to restrict or vary the terms of the contract to, Company or otherwise interfere with the relationship between such a customer/client and Company (save and except actions taken during the course of his/her/their employment with Company in exercise of his/her/their power and authority as an employee of Company and in what he/she reasonably believes to be the interest of the Company);
 - d) solicit, employ, engage or seek to employ or engage any individual or entity, on behalf of the new employer or any entity other than the Company, or advise any employee or director of Company or its Affiliates to terminate their employment or engagement with Company or its Affiliates, who is employed or had been engaged by Company or its Affiliates or who was employed or engaged by Company or its Affiliates during the 12 (twelve) month period preceding the date of the purported solicitation/employment/engagement.
 - e) disclose any Confidential Information or trade secret of Company or any of its Affiliates to any unauthorized person or persons or misuse the Confidential Information or trade secrets of Company or any of its Affiliates.
- 5.2 Employee confirms and acknowledges that each of the covenants contained herein above shall be a separate covenant and shall be enforceable separately and independently of any of the other covenants against Employee and its validity shall not be affected if any of the others is invalid; if any of the covenants is void but would be valid if some part of the covenant were deleted, the covenant in question shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid.
- 5.3 Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the context of the Company’s business and Employee’s relationship with the Company, the foregoing covenants and other limitations with respect thereto are essential to protect the goodwill and interests of Company and its Affiliates.
- 5.4 Employee hereby acknowledges that the restrictions under this Clause are fair and reasonable as to subject matter, geographical scope and duration, and are reasonably necessary to protect the value of Company and its Affiliates and associated goodwill.
- 5.5 Employee further acknowledges that: (i) any breach or threatened or attempted breach of any provision of this Clause by them could cause irreparable harm to the Company; (ii) monetary damages might not be sufficient or adequate to protect the Company’s interests under this

Mujahideul Islam

Clause. Company shall, in addition to all other applicable remedies be entitled to injunctive relief and/or specific performance of this Clause or other equitable remedy without being required to prove damages or furnish any bond or other security.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

- a) During the course of employment, the Employee may have access to and become acquainted with certain confidential, proprietary, and non-public information belonging to the Company. This includes, but is not limited to, trade secrets, business strategies, financial information, customer and client lists, employee data, technical data, marketing plans, product development, software, inventions, know-how, and any other information not publicly disclosed by the Company (collectively referred to as "Confidential Information").
- b) The Employee agrees to maintain the strictest confidence and safeguard the Confidential Information. The Employee shall not disclose, publish, reproduce, distribute, or otherwise make available any Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Company, except as required in the course of their assigned duties and responsibilities.
- c) The Employee shall only use Confidential Information for the purpose of fulfilling their responsibilities within the scope of their employment with the Company. Unauthorized use, exploitation, or conversion of Confidential Information for personal or third-party gain is strictly prohibited.
- d) The obligation of confidentiality shall remain in effect during the entire term of employment and shall continue indefinitely after the termination or conclusion of employment, regardless of the reason for such termination or conclusion.
- e) The Employee acknowledges that a breach of this confidentiality obligation may cause irreparable harm to the Company. In the event of a breach or threatened breach, the Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity.

7. INDEMNITY

The Employee agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, expenses, and losses, including but not limited to legal fees, arising out of or in connection with any breach of this Letter of Appointment, violation of applicable laws, or any negligent or willful misconduct by the Employee during the course of employment which adversely affects the Company or its reputation or goodwill. The Employee acknowledges that indemnity shall survive the termination of employment.

Mujahideel Islam

8. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- a) Company may, at its sole discretion, terminate Employee's employment at any time during the probation period without giving any notice and/ or assigning any reason. Post completion of probation period, Company may terminate Employee's employment for reasons and in manner as more specifically provided under the confirmation and exit policy as updated from time to time.
- b) In the event of separation (including termination) from the services of the Company within 12 months from the Date of Joining, the Company has the right to recover the amount incurred or paid in the form of joining bonus, relocation, training/certification or any other bonus or expenses incurred beyond the fixed compensation structure.

9. REMEDIES

- a) Employee acknowledges that Company might suffer immediate, material, immeasurable, continuing and irreparable damage and may not have an adequate monetary remedy if Employee breaches the terms or conditions of this Letter of Appointment. Employee acknowledges that Company will be entitled to institute and prosecute proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to prevent Employee from violating any contractual or legal obligation or to compel performance of Employee's obligations hereunder. Employee agrees that Company shall not be required to post a bond or other security for seeking injunctive relief. Relief of injunction and/or specific performance shall be in addition to any remedy for damages which Company may be entitled to.
- b) Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this Letter of Appointment shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Gurugram in accordance with the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 as then existing, in English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed mutually by the Parties.

10. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Employee hereby represents, warrants, and confirms that:

- a) He/she has executed and delivered this Letter of Appointment as their free and voluntary act, after having determined that the provisions contained herein are of benefit to him/her, and that the duties and obligations imposed on him/her hereunder are fair and reasonable and will not prevent him/her from earning a comparable livelihood following the termination of his/her/their employment with the Company;
- b) He/she has read and fully understood the terms and conditions set forth herein and the benefits and consequences of entering into this Letter of Appointment.
